

WHY ME?

PRODUCT DEVELOPER & MERCHANDISER

MAIN TASKS:

Verify the availability of raw materials to ensure the requirements plan.

Experienced in production planning such as: calculating the lead-times, checking availability of raw materials and trims.

Generate production orders.

Multiple years of experience within production order placement ensuring the right customers being assigned the right assortments, prices and delivery terms such as correct quantities and ETA.

Create production books.

Have not been working with production books yet, but I am a fast learner.

Analyze and monitor the progress of assigned orders

Highly experienced in monitoring the progress of the production orders.

Communicate with suppliers and provide feedback on the production of the RTW collections.

Great communication skills and ability to react fast across the stake-holding teams.

REQUIREMENTS:

2+ years of experience in a similar role, in a luxury fashion company is a plus

6,5 years of professional experience managing 6 yearly collections consisting of 70 - 160 SKUs per each.

Excellent use and knowledge of Microsoft Office in particular Excel

Great skills within Microsoft Office - Excel included.

Excellent use and knowledge of Adobe Suite in particular InDesign and Illustrator.

Experienced in InDesign (creating graphical layouts, lookbooks, trend reviews and collection overview pages) and Photoshop, while currently having a course in Illustrator (creating flat sketches) - though I am a fast learner.

Ability to work proactively, independently on multiple projects under tight timeframes

Routines kill my excitement (even though they are necessary, especially well-established workflows within production follow-up), therefore I am motivated by working under multiple deadlines and different projects at a time. Team-player, while also being self-motivated.

Highly organized, flexible with the ability to adapt to a fast-paced everchanging environment

Ability to manage stress and pay close attention to detail

Check mark.

Good level of English both written and spoken this will be tested in the interview process

English is the second language after my native Lithuanian.

Availability to travel within Italy and Europe.

Travel is what inspires me the most. I am used to traveling for work and have been visiting my suppliers through many years (China, Hong Kong, South Korea to name a few).
